Item 7: Water System Report

Stanley Townsend reported that Dry Pond has been tied in, but water samples are still to be done. McCurry Lane needs a tap then they can tie it in. City of Canton is relaying pipe at the new apartments.

Lamar Rogers of Turnipseed reported that we are having a preconstruction meeting Wednesday September 30 at 9am for the city project. Lamar passed out sewer plans from 2014 just to give council a view of what was discussed at that time. He will be searching for grants for sewer. Stanley will be talking with Reinhardt to see what they have to say as far as sewer. Lamar presented to council the survey done on Grady St. and 108, and by looking at it there are no issues to be concerned with. Council just asked that Chris move the street sign to the other side of the road.

Item 8: City Manager Report

City Manager reported that by end of October we need to decide on water rates.

Item 9: City Attorney's Report

City Attorney reported he will contact Cherokee counties attorney and DOT about Lower Burris project not being completed. The scope of work states that the 10 inch line must be abandon.

Item 10: Mayor's Report

Mayor Lamb reported that we fed the dayshift fireman and deputies, and the night shift deputies will be soon.

Item 11: Council Remarks

No Report.
